 - The Business Associates acknowledge that IMC invests time and resources in their training, development, promotion and these investments are essential to their success within the company.
 - The Business Associates during their association with IMC and for one year after resigning or leaving IMC, undertake not to directly or indirectly promote any competing business. The Associates understand that this may result in legal action along with the obligation to compensate IMC for losses incurred.
 - In the event that a Business Associate from and above the level of Ambassador Star Associate resigns or leaves IMC, such Business Associate agrees to reimburse IMC, the commissions earned from the level of Ambassador Star Associate and above during the last 6 months of their association. Such reimbursement must be made simultaneously with resignation/termination without any protest or challenge. The Business Associates agree to serve a six-month advance notice period to IMC in the event they decide to resign or terminate their association with the company. The Business Associates further agree not to make any claims against IMC with respect to any past, present or future business after their resignation or termination.
 - All achievement awards, bonuses, commissions and incentives are subject to review and approval by IMC as the Business Associates must be compliant at all times with IMC's Code of Ethics, Terms and Conditions and Policies and Standards and be considered in good standing. Business Associates are in good standing:
 - If they comply with the IMC's Code of Ethics, Policies, applicable laws, rules and regulations.
 - If they do not defend or support the conduct of others who do not comply with these criteria.
 - Unless they have violated their contract and the resultant sanctions have not been fulfilled.
 - Unless their conduct could negatively affect the reputation of IMC, its related business or entities.

CODE OF ETHICS

- Unless they are aware of possible violations and failed to address them or, if the activity was of continuing nature, failed to inform IMC. Loss of good standing continues until restored at the discretion of IMC or until any applicable sanctions are served. IMC reserves the right to withhold commissions, bonuses and incentives from Business Associates found in violation of this policy. Persistent non-compliance may lead to the termination of the Business Associate's business relationship with IMC.
 - m) It is responsibility of the Business Associates to check/maintain his/her online login portal to get latest information/ promotional activities etc. The Business associate shall not share his/her Login ID and Password with any other person, IMC will not be responsible if the Business Associate lost his/her Login ID and Password or that its credentials has been misused, the sole responsibility of safe keeping this information rests with the Business Associates hence it is advised to change the passwords from time to time to ensure security.
 - n) IMC tries to provide an eco-system where like-minded people can interact and share their knowledge/ experience which would help them to achieve personal goals, that's why all the Business Associates are requested not to discuss any Political or Religious issues, encourage discussions on those subjects which may create unhealthy feelings amongst the associate and IMC staff.
 - o) To protect the environment in the eco-system of IMC, IMC shall take appropriate action against the Business Associate who is involved in any illegal activities or business which may be against the policies of IMC or against Central, State or Local Rules or Regulations.
 - p) With prior permission of IMC an Associate can sell IMC Products by installing a canopy, stall, or exhibit at any place or fair. Associate shall have the responsibility of obtaining the required permission for the same from the related Government Department or from the appropriate authorities.

- 2.10 De-facto membership, Exclusion of certain relationships and termination: -
- 2.10.1 The spouse of an Associate will get de facto membership of IMC as co-applicant, though all the incentives shall be paid in the account of the spouse who had applied in IMC as Primary Applicant. In an unfortunate event of Divorce of an Associate the benefits of the Associate ID will be distributed as per their mutual agreement or as per the directions of the Court. Any gift and/or tour will be given to the working (active) Associate only. For this, the Associate is required to submit the copy of Decree of Divorce to IMC, along with a written application.
- 2.10.2 An Associate who has joined an IMC business team cannot let his/her parents or children join as an IMC Associate in any other business team, though they can join as Associate in the down line of that Business Associate.
- 2.10.3 Brother, sister and married daughter are considered as a member of extended family. They can join any other business team and perform as per the business rules.
- 2.10.4 Legally separated wife, husband, daughter and son can do business individually only after getting confirmation from IMC.
- 2.10.5 If two Associates get married:
- a) Husband & Wife can work separately on their old different Associate IDs & no two businesses can be merged together in such condition. However, if they want to work under only one ID then they have to resign from one of the ID with the consent of IMC. No legs of resigned associate ID will be rolled up to upline associate. The resigned associate ID will be replaced with IMC place holder & will be considered as single leg for the upline as per company policy.
 - b) Two married Associates can form a Partnership Firm and work together on that ID on which they have not resigned.
- 2.11 Death/ Physical impairment of any Associate:
- 2.11.1 In an unfortunate event of death of an Associate, his/her business will be transferred to his/her Co-applicant or his/her nominee or to the legal heir determined by the court.
- 2.11.2 The Associate who is maintaining Ruby level and has qualified for the Car Fund, unfortunately if he/she dies or becomes fully/partly impaired (lose any two limbs) then the IMC will grant his/her family the privilege of getting leadership bonus and other incentives without maintaining side volumes (PGBV). In furtherance of such unfortunate events, if any Business Associate is unable to maintain the three legs requirement every month as to qualify under the Ruby Level then such Business Associates at the Ruby Level with two different legs at Qualified Super Star level every month will also be eligible to receive leadership bonuses and other incentives as mentioned above.
- 2.11.3 This rule will be applicable to all the Associates who are at the Ruby level or above, however the minimum qualification condition will be according to the level achieved by the Associate.
- 2.12 Gifts and Awards from IMC business: -
- In order to motivate its business Associates and to acknowledge their hard work, IMC announces various Gifts and awards to its Business associates, as the real strength of IMC is the support of its Business associate. IMC announces certain conditions/ qualifications, which are required to be fulfilled by the Business Associate to claim the gift / award.
- a) The Associates qualified for a Gift or award can claim their gifts within 6 months of being entitled. After the aforesaid period of 6 months IMC or any of its outlet or distribution center shall not be in a position to entertain any such claim.
 - b) A Business Associate who has qualified for any award/ gift /tour cannot get it exchanged with any other gift or in cash. IMC organizes tours for its qualified Business Associate from time to time, if such qualified Associate does not avail tour, the Business Associate cannot ask his inclusion in any other tour as well as cannot demand cash in lieu of that tour. In case of Foreign Tour, if the visa application of qualified Associate has been rejected by the embassy on any grounds, IMC shall not be held responsible for the same and shall not be liable to compensate the Associate.
 - c) In case of Partnership firm or other Associates who are working on a single Associate ID (like spouse of any associate who is co-applicant), only one Partner/Associate can avail the tour and gift, IMC is not liable to entertain all the Co-applicants or partners or stakeholders, unless specifically authorized by the IMC itself.
 - d) Newmaintained achiever starting from Silver Star Associate to Kohinoor Crown President Star Associate, will receive their respective qualification PIN, Certificate along with the ID Card in the subsequent month after maintaining a particular level, however they will receive their payouts monthly on the basis of the level achieved by them.

CODE OF ETHICS

products. Such benefits will continue to be enjoyed till a Business Associate shows an active engagement. If any inactivity is detected in a Business Associate's ID, the same shall be governed by the terms stated under clause 4.6.2 of this Code. During the term of his/her association with IMC a Business Associate can start to earn all the benefits by actively engaging himself/herself in building IMC business by buying and selling IMC products.

- a) Sale Commission: -
IMC encourage its Business Associates to be active in the IMC business, merely introducing new Associates in IMC business and earning retail margins is not what IMC mandates. Business Associate acknowledges that sales will be reasonably achievable by them and that it is not such an amount that they cannot themselves easily consume or resell. Business Associates can sell the products to Preferred Customers and/or personally purchase and/or sell to other customers to earn PBV.
- b) IMC releases the sales incentive to Business Associates after deducting tax at source (TDS) at the applicable rates as per the Income Tax Act and the Rules. If any Associate does not submit/link/update his/her PAN number with IMC, then the company shall release the incentive after deducting 20% TDS as applicable time to time by CBDT (or such higher percentage as may be prescribed under the Income Tax Act and the Rules). Those Business associate's ID on which 20% TDS has been deducted shall not receive Form 16-A from IMC, hence it is advisable to all the associate to update/link/ submit their PAN card details with the company at the earliest.
- c) IMC transfers the sales incentive earned by the Associate to his respective bank account with IMC Portal. To get the sales incentive it is mandatory to give Bank Details (Name of the Bank, Account Number, Branch, IFSC Code etc.) If any Associate does not give the Bank Details, then the sales incentive of the Associate shall be held in his/her ID and it will be retained for 2 financial years, after that this incentive shall be forfeited by the company and the Associate cannot claim for that incentive from IMC.
